Profile

Congressman Mike Ezell is the state's newest representative to serve the people of South Mississippi's 4th Congressional District.

Congressman Ezell has more than 42 years of experience as a law enforcement officer fighting to protect the people and communities of South Mississippi.

Congressman Ezell is a lifelong conservative Republican who believes in individual liberty, limited government, and the free market. In Congress, he'll put America First and stand strong to cut taxes and regulations, protect the unborn, support our military and law enforcement, secure our border, and defend the 2nd Amendment and our other Constitutional rights.

Before being elected to represent the people of South Mississippi in Washington, Ezell served as Sheriff of Jackson County for 8 years. As Sheriff, he cleaned up corruption, cut wasteful spending, and returned millions of dollars to taxpayers.

The son of a city policeman and a church secretary, Ezell's law enforcement career included stints as Chief of Police in Ocean Springs, Chief of Detectives in Pascagoula, Chief of Campus Police for the Pascagoula School District and Campus Police Captain at Singing River Hospital.

Congressman-elect Ezell is a lifelong resident of Jackson County and a graduate of Pascagoula High School. He attended night school at the University of Southern Mississippi to obtain a degree in Criminal Justice while serving full-time with the Pascagoula Police Department. Ezell also graduated from the Mississippi Law Enforcement Training Academy and the FBI National Academy.

Mike and his wife, Suzette, live in Pascagoula and are active members of First Baptist Church of Pascagoula. They have one daughter, Amy Ezell Dennis (Coby) and one granddaughter, Sydney.
